WELCOME

The art of winemaking—handed down like a beloved story, whispered from one generation to the next. Some hold fast to tradition, honoring a family style refined over decades. Others break away, carrying the wisdom of their roots into new terrain. And some, like true artists, walk the line between reverence and reinvention. However the journey unfolds, it brings me deep joy to share their passion—their legacy—here at Marisella.

May tonight's dinner be a perfect pairing: wine with food, and people with conversation. Cheers!

Grüner Veltliner is a crisp, herbaceous white wine from Austria known for its bright acidity and subtle white pepper notes. Its refreshing character and minerality make it an ideal partner for crudo — especially delicate preparations like hamachi or scallop. The wine’s citrus and green notes lift the flavors of the fish, while its clean finish keeps the palate refreshed between bites.

ELEGANT AND EARTHY, RED BURGUNDY IS A NATURAL MATCH FOR LAMB.

The wine’s silky texture, bright acidity, and subtle notes of cherry, mushroom, and spice complement the richness of lamb without overpowering it. Whether roasted or grilled, lamb brings out the depth and nuance of Pinot Noir, creating a pairing that’s both refined and deeply satisfying.

BOLD MEETS BOLD — SYRAH AND STEAK ARE A TIMELESS PAIRING.

With its dark fruit, black pepper, and smoky undertones, Syrah stands up beautifully to the richness of grilled or charred steak. Its structure and depth cut through the fat, while its spice enhances every savory bite, making each sip and bite more expressive than the last.

LIGHT, FLORAL MOSCATO OFFERS A FRESH COUNTERPOINT TO THE RICH LAYERS OF TIRAMISU.

Its gentle sweetness, notes of peach and orange blossom, and soft effervescence cut through the cream and coffee, lifting the dessert and finishing with a delicate sparkle.

M
