

Welcome to Bourbon Street Bar and Grille where we've been bringing you our innovative interpretations of NOLA's French Quarter food, drink and fun for over a decade. Located on New York City's famed Restaurant Row in the heart of the theater district, you'll know us by our charming gas lamps and wrought iron railings on the outside and by the old-world charm, fun and friendly atmosphere on the inside.

Our "made from scratch" kitchen proudly serves up the tastiest Cajun, Creole and BBQ dishes using the finest and freshest ingredients available. We also boast an extensive Whisky, beer and cocktail selection.

We're opened for lunch, happy hour, pre-theater, dinner, late-night and weekend brunch. Whether you're looking for a full meal, a snack, or a beer and a ball game, you'll always be treated to the full Bourbon Street experience. So, Laissez les bon temps rouler - "let the good times roll". Welcome and enjoy!
