

These New York City Holiday Pop Ups Will Transport You To Winter Lodges Around The World

Whether you live in New York City or you're visiting for the first time, there's no denying that the holiday's are a magical time of year.

Set atop the historic The Beekman Tower in Midtown East, Snow Globe in The Sky at Ophelia is an Art-Deco-inspired cocktail lounge that's been transformed to resemble a shimmering snow globe 26-stories above the city. Dripping in crystal and sparkling snowflakes, the gorgeous holiday decor gives revelers a glamorous holiday sipping experience with seriously deliciously delicious sips to boot.
