

Inside Glamour's Girls Of The Yr After-Celebration

It was a magical evening celebrating the Glamour Girls of the Yr class of 2022, comprising Angela Bassett, Dr. Rebecca Gomperts, Jennifer Hudson, Shannon Watts, Aurora James, and Haim, and when the awards ceremony got here to an in depth yesterday (although you possibly can nonetheless watch), the celebration continued. In collaboration with cocktail lounge Ophelia and Moët Hennessy, Glamour relocated to the fashionable bar situated in Manhattan's Midtown East neighborhood for an evening of spectacular 360-degree skyline views, progressive drinks, and an evening of feeling, properly, glamorous.

Since 1993, Glamour has honored the world's most extraordinary ladies—and the signature cocktails have been nothing in need of recognizing the trailblazers and rule breakers who've outlined this 12 months.
