

GUEST of a GUEST

Get Merry At NYC's Most Festive Holiday Bars & Boozy Pop-Ups

Thankfully, you don't have to participate in SantaCon to get your fill of festive holiday-themed revelry this season. Just in time for ugly sweaters and spiked egg nog, some of our favorite watering holes around town have decked their halls with over-the-top, totally 'grammable decor that could get even the Grinch into the holiday spirit (and, well, those boozy sips can't hurt either). From tropical takes on the North Pole to a pink winter wonderland and chic après-ski lodge, click through for the must-hit holiday bars for all your merrymaking in NYC.

Snow Globe In The Sky

Enter the magical world of a real-life snow globe 26 stories above NYC. Chic cocktail lounge Ophelia is dripping with crystals and sparkling snowflakes, giving revelers a glamorous holiday sipping experience atop the historic Beekman Tower, complete with all the 1920s vibes.

Snow Globe In The Sky at Ophelia, 3 Mitchell Pl 26th floor

[Photo via Ophelia]