

10 Restaurants And Bars With Over-The-Top Holiday Decorations

Whether you identify as the office coordinator keeping Ugly Sweater parties alive, or a brooding Sexy Scrooge, New York's Christmas spirit will get you like it got Home Alone's Pigeon Lady, and you'll need somewhere fun to drink that eggnog craft cocktail. A bunch of restaurants and bars are known for going all out with elaborate holiday decorations, special holiday cocktails, and treats. Here are 10 places you can feel festive this month—before you go full Grinch again at that one dive with a single string of lights across the bar.

Ophelia

SAVE TO A LISTWEBSITEPHONEBAR FOOD | MIDTOWN*$$$ | PERFECT FOR: BUSINESS MEALS CORPORATE CARDS DRINKS & A LIGHT BITERESERVE A TABLE

POWERED BY

EARN 3X POINTS WITH YOUR SAPPHIRE CARD

In Narnia, "it's always winter but never Christmas," thanks to the self-appointed Queen of Narnia, the White Witch Jadis. But was she a villain or was she a misunderstood girlboss with impeccable taste in white clothing? Whatever you may think of her, take a cue from this sty-con and wear your fabulous winter whites to Ophelia's stunning Snow Globe in the Sky. Strings of blue lights with snowflakes hang from the ceiling like icicles and every piece of furniture on the Midtown rooftop wears a fur stole. Come before or after dinner for cocktails and snacks like baked brie and sea bass skewers. There are no chestnuts or teddy bear Santas on this rooftop, but this is the most glamorous place you can drink a martini this winter.