Formerly a women's boarding house and then a speakeasy where members of the Rat Pack would frequent, now it is a magical winter wonderland. The Art-Deco-inspired cocktail lounge, located atop the historic Beekman Tower in Midtown East, has been transformed to resemble a shimmering snow globe 26 stories above NYC. Talk about some gorgeous views! You will have views of midtown Manhattan and Brooklyn while sipping on sublime reinventions of classic cocktails inspired by the glory of the lounge during its heyday in the 1920s and 30s.
