

NYC's Most Festive Christmas Bars for 2025: Where to Find Over-The-Top Decor, Ornament Cocktails, and Holiday Mini-Golf

As the holidays creep closer, NYC is once again transforming into a glittering playground of tinsel-draped rooftops, alpine lodge makeovers, and over-the-top festive pop-ups.

Every year, bars and restaurants across the city pull out all the stops—swapping their usual decor for snow-dusted cabins, twinkling winter wonderlands, and the kind of kitschy, candy-colored setups that practically beg for a photo.

And of course, each one comes with its own menu of merry, mistletoe-ready cocktails.

Whether you're chasing peak holiday vibes or simply want to sip something festive under a canopy of lights, these are the holiday pop-up bars that deserve a spot on your 2025 winter bucket list.

10. Snowglobe in the Sky

 Source / Ophelia's

This Art Deco-inspired cocktail lounge in Midtown is reopening its iconic Snow Globe in the Sky for the winter season!

Ophelia will transform into an IRL snow globe towering over NYC, with crystals, sparkling snowflakes, and dazzling wintry illuminations lining the walls.

The sky-high bar expertly crafted cocktails, including the famed El Paso Old Fashioned (Coconut Cartel rum, Don Fulano Reposado tequila, banana, cacao, cinnamon, and Angostura bitters).

 3 Mitchell Pl, Floor 26