

CITY GUIDE

10 BEST HAPPY HOURS IN NEW YORK

BY ALY WALANSKY | DEC 17 2015

FOLLOW US

Everyone defines their ideal happy hour a little differently. Whether you are looking for a bang for your buck, a quiet spot to have a quality cocktail after work or really great food at half price, New York City has you covered. We've rounded up 10 really great happy hours across the spectrum that all do something a little bit extra special to bring their own happy hour to the next level.

SLIDE 9 OF 13

© The Meatball Shop

The Meatball Shop

At cult-meatball destination The Meatball Shop, enjoy an interactive, mix-and-match menu of meatballs, sauces, seasonal sides, and unique specialty cocktails. This season, the spot launched happy hour at the Williamsburg location, which features the brand new mac & cheese balls, as well as 1/2-priced pitchers of sangria ($20), 1/2-priced quarts of Fool-Aid, with brandy, rum and citrus fruit ($14). Or try their "pick any two" special with a choice of slider, PBR pint, or any well shot for $6. themeatballshop.com