

Dear Guests,

This New Year's Eve 2026, why not throw your friends and family a proper party in one of central London's best restaurants: Kitty Fisher's in Mayfair or her sister restaurant, Cora Pearl in Covent Garden. We'll wine and dine you until Big Ben chimes midnight, and then the rest of the night begins!

Both restaurants are now available for full private hire only on Thursday 31st December.

KITTY FISHER'S

Located in festive Shepherd Market in Mayfair, and a stone's throw from Picadilly and all of the top hotels, our small, beloved neighbourhood bistro is perfect for a long, raucous dinner and whatever might come after that...seating for 10-30x, with the option of a separate private room hire too in the Club Room (12x), eat our famous wood-grilled beef and drink a Bad Kitty or two before getting stuck into our delightful old-world wine list.

We are very small and not always perfectly behaved- if that sounds like your idea of fun, do get in touch.

Cost is a min. spend £4k ex. 13.5% optional service charge.

CORA PEARL

Cora Pearl is to be found in Henrietta Street, the beating heart of London's theatreland; there is nothing like a Covent Garden New Year's Eve. Join the revellers and enjoy a glorious drinks reception and dinner, before dancing in the cocktail bar until VERY late. We can seat from 10-35x guests.

Unrivalled cocktails, superb food and wine and a truly glamorous setting to bookend the old year and bring in the new: 'HAPPY NEW YEAR' she shouts, and we all shout 'HAPPY NEW YEAR!' back, full of love and bonhomie.

Cost is a min. Spend of £5k ex. 13.5% optional service charge.
