

NYC Valentine's Day Dining Destinations Not To Miss

Valentine's Day in New York City calls for something special, whether that means a candlelit dining room, live jazz, skyline views, or an intimate tasting menu.

Moët on the Hudson at Mezze on the River

Battery Park City

Credit: Mezze on the River

Waterfront romance takes center stage at Mezze on the River with Moët on the Hudson. Couples can sip Moët & Chandon Champagne inside heated glasshouses or at intimate indoor tables overlooking the river. A four-course brunch or dinner paired with iconic bubbles makes this experience indulgent yet effortless.

Ophelia

Midtown

Credit: Ophelia

Perched on the 26th floor of the historic Beekman Tower, Ophelia delivers Art Deco romance with panoramic city views. Choose between a Valentine's Brunch with a Moët Spritz and sweet treats or an evening soirée featuring a full bottle of Champagne. Velvet banquettes and skyline vistas make this a standout for romantics.