

Where to Celebrate Father's Day: Six Amazing Brunches Downtown

This Sunday, June 18, is Father's Day, and if you're still without plans, Lower Manhattan is here to help. Several restaurants are going all out for the holiday, with delicious brunch menus to honor the old man.

Here are six amazing restaurants where you can feast with Dad.

Industry Kitchen

Chef Jonathan Haffmans has lined up a custom Father's Day menu that includes entrees such as Maryland blue crab cakes benedict and roasted bone marrow for two. And for pro-tips on which tables have the best views along Industry Kitchen's sprawling patio, be sure to check out our infographic for the inside scoop. (70 South St.)

Mezze on the River

Anyone who's still hankering for that grilled octopus from last week's Dine Around Downtown might consider booking a Sunday meal at Mezze on the River. The Greek and seafood spot is ideal for a plate-sharing situation, not to mention the views overlooking the Hudson River. Father's Day dishes include truffle oysters casino, grilled skirt steak skewers and broiled whole lobster. (375 South End Ave.)
