

Dine Around Downtown Returns on June 6 With 42 Lower Manhattan Restaurants

The Alliance for Downtown New York, Lower Manhattan's nonprofit business improvement district, will welcome 42 Lower Manhattan restaurants to the 2023 Dine Around Downtown festival, held at Fosun's landmarked plaza at 28 Liberty Street on Tuesday, June 6 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The event marks the 20th edition of the festival and features award-winning chef, author and downtown resident Rocco DiSpirito as its special guest host.

Launched in 1997, Dine Around Downtown has become Lower Manhattan's premier tasting event. Every year, thousands of local residents, office workers and tourists alike gather at the festival to celebrate the neighborhood's rich culinary scene. Admission is free, with restaurants offering signature menu items ranging from $5 to $9; beverages are available for purchase as well. Many newcomers will be featured this year, including: BioPoke, Gnoccheria Wall Street Express, Havana Social, Kesté Pizza & Vino, Mezze on the River, and Que Chevere.
