LOVE IS MEANT TO BE SHARED.

This Valentine's Day, it's all about slowing down, leaning in, and sharing something unforgettable. From made-to-share desserts like Hearth's Dubai skillet cookie to dishes designed for lingering, we invite you to celebrate love with us, one bite at a time.

FROM THE PDG KITCHEN

Meet the hands behind the dishes we love.

CHEF JORGE LOPEZ

Executive Chef | El Camino Mexican Kitchen

Chef Jorge grew up in Delaware, with a creative eye shaped by his arts-school background and his deep love for color, flavor, and feeding people. He began cooking for friends and family in high school, and sharpened his skills at Delaware Tech's culinary program. Before joining the PDG team, Jorge gained experience with Compass Group, Two Stones, and through private dining for schools and summer programs. Chef Jorge joined Platinum Dining Group and quickly found his place at El Camino, stepping in as sous chef and rising to executive chef shortly after. With family roots in Mexico, including ties to Mexico City and Tenancingo, Chef Jorge brings heart, heritage, and bold creativity to every dish.

A CLOSER LOOK AT WHAT'S IN THE GLASS

SEASONAL SIPS

FRENCH KISS

At each of the Taverna locations, our French Kiss is Valentine's Day in a glass: bright, bubbly, and just indulgent enough. Vodka and raspberry purée bring the romance, vanilla syrup adds a soft sweetness, and prosecco finishes with a celebratory sparkle. It's made for clinking glasses & lingering glances.

POP THE ROSÉ

THIS VALENTINES DAY

For something a little more classic—but no less romantic—we're pouring Saint-Hilaire Crémant de Limoux Brut Rosé at Eclipse. Delicate bubbles, fresh red berry notes, and a crisp, elegant finish make it an effortless Valentine's Day choice. Think strawberries, subtle florals, and just enough sparkle to keep the night feeling celebratory—whether you're toasting a long love story or simply a fantastic dinner.
