

BAR BOOK

SPRITZ

The name can be traced back to the 1800s when portions of the Veneto region of northern Italy were controlled by the Austro-Hungarian Empire. It's been said, that visitors and soldiers from other parts of the empire found Italian wines too strong and needed to lighten them with a splash of water, "spritz" in German.

SIGNATURE

Our tailored cocktails take inspiration from the 1632s by Robert Adams who was stationed in India and worked for the British East India Company. Writing to a colleague about their respective accommodation and company he wrote "I hope you will keep good house together and drink punch by no allowance" D.W.

COFFEE DELICACIES

Legend has it that Soho Brasserie bartender Dick Bradsell invented Espresso Martini for a model who waltzed into his bar and demanded something that would "wake me up, and then f... me up". Inspired by this concept, we involve our deep culture in espresso coffee to design a unique coffee experience.

Espress 98

VODKA

The first to develop this distillate were monks, thanks to them, farmers of the 18th century began to drink vodka and its use began to grow in Russia. However, this drink did not begin to expand until 1917, during the Russian Revolution, in which the Russian population began to escape towards Europe. This clean and crisp spirit is ideal for mixing or enjoying neat.
