OUR STAFF FAVOURITES

WHITES

Grechetto, Grechetto Colli Martani DOC 'Grecante', Arnaldo Caprai 520
Umbria, 2013

A historic and ancient variety, kept alive by Caprai. Complex despite being un-oaked. Apricot, pineapple, honey. Refreshing acid, medium-bodied.

Arneis, Langhe DOC, Cordero di Montezemolo 450
Piemonte, 2016

An aromatic grape indigenous to Piemonte. A tricky grape to grow (Arneis means 'a difficult and demanding person' in Piemontese).

Reminds us of Alsatian whites with peach, chamomile, and good acidity.

Aligote, Bourgogne Aligote AC, Chateau de Villars Fontaine 400
Burgundy, 2012

Burgundy's other white grape. For wine explorers. Lemon & hazelnuts.

OUR STAFF FAVOURITES (cont.)

REDS

Pinot Noir, Moorooduc Estate 440

Mornington Peninsula, Australia, 2013

Moorooduc Estate, founded in 1982, was one of the first to be established on the Mornington Peninsula (perhaps Australia's most renowned region for pinot). Supple and velvety, with red fruits and incense. Relative bargain.

Frappato & Nero d'Avola, Terre Siciliane IGT 'SP68', Occhipinti 470

Sicilia, 2017

"Lovely aromatics here: pure and bright with elegant cherries and plums.

Pretty and floral with crunchy raspberry notes" - Jaime Goode, Wineanorak

Nebbiolo, Domenica 850

Beechworth, Australia, 2013

"If you're into the new wave of true fine wine producers of Australia you should be onto Domenica. Classics in the making. Peter Graham got schooled (partly) at the great Giaconda winery in Beechworth. This is where he struts his own stuff. It's impressive." Mike Bennie - Wine Front
