BEST SPORTS BAR SLATERS 50/50 slaters5050.com

With a slew of locations over the United States, Slaters 50/50's Denver location has only been open since 2020, but its meteoric rise by way of the famous 50/50 burger has only continued in the Centennial State. The 50% bacon, 50% beef blended burger attracts all types of customers, but it's the other bells and whistles within Slaters that often make the customers returning ones.

Slater's boasts more than 53 craft and local beers on tap, no corkage fees for anyone looking to bring their own wine, and a nightly happy hour from 9 p.m. to close.

BEST RESTAURANT VIEW THE RED BARBER theredbarber.com

It doesn't matter if you're at the Red Barber for a drag show brunch, some Thursday night trivia, or just to take advantage of some phenomenal happy hour deals; one element is consistent: the incredible view.

"Offering an unparalleled vantage point to the junction of skyline, mountains and cityscape, we are Denver's backyard day-dream - a convivial rooftop bar retreat with 360-degree views perched high above the city," Red Barber's website touts.

BEST RESTAURANT WINE LIST NOBLE RIOT nobleriot.com

Noble Riot doesn't just have the best wine list in Colorado; it may very well have the best wine school in Colorado. Going above and beyond a simple recommendation, Noble Riot offers a wine school where sommeliers can educate you on the science behind wine pairing. If you don't want to fully enroll in the wine school, join Noble Riot's flight club where there is more of a focus on socializing with some wine on the side.
