GRILL HOUSE & COCKTAIL BAR

SPECIALTY COCKTAILS | 20

Step back in time and sip the spirit of Old Chicago. Each cocktail is inspired by a historic landmark, iconic business, or legendary neighborhood - a taste of the city's colorful past in every glass.

SEARS TOWER

bourbon, demerara, orange & angostura bitters (old fashioned)

Completed in 1973, the Sears Tower (now Willis Tower) rose 1,450 feet as the world's tallest building for 25 years. Its Skydeck still offers Chicago's highest views.

MARSHALL FIELD'S

vodka, spiced pear liqueur, tiki bitters, green tea, lemon juice

Known for Frango mints, grand holiday displays, and the motto "Give the lady what she wants," Marshall Field's defined Chicago shopping from 1901 until its flagship became Macy's in 2006.

BRACH'S CANDY

crown royal vanilla, chocolate liqueur, raspberry liqueur

At one time Brach's Chicago factory at 4656 West Kinzie Street was the largest candy factory in the world, producing over 2 million pounds per week. The factory was abandoned in 2003.

LAWNDALE THEATER

mezcal, tequila, ginger, bitters

Opening in 1927 with 2,200 seats under a glittering dome, the Lawndale Theater shifted from dazzling movie palace to mobster hangout and later to a community church before being demolished in 2014.

LAKE SHORE EAST

bourbon, mari gold, lillet, lemon juice

The land that is now Lakeshore East began as a 19th-century railyard, spent time as a golf course in the 1990s, and today thrives as a modern urban neighborhood.

COMPANY TOWN

pernod, b  dictine, aperol, pineapple juice, lemon juice

Built in 1880 by George Pullman, the original "company town" housed workers for his railroad car factory. With its own shops, schools, and parks, it became a model and controversy for planned industrial communities.

MEIGS FIELD AIRPORT

vanilla vodka, rye, cream, cinnamon syrup; house-made caramel

Once the busiest single-runway airport in the U.S., Meigs Field served Chicago from 1948 to 2003 before its sudden destruction, paving the way for today's Northerly Island Park.

COMISKEY PARK

house-made hot buttered rum; toasted marshmallow (served hot)

The "Baseball Palace of the World" (1910  1990), hosted four World Series, debuted the exploding scoreboard, and saw the infamous 1979 Disco Demolition Night before closing in 1990.
