

2021 CATERING MENU

BREAKFAST | LUNCH | DINNER | SNACKS

Founded by Drew Harré in 1989

“In order to find our passion, sometimes you have to create it. For me, it happened to be the quest for the perfect sandwich.”

- Drew Harré, founder of the original Cosi

The Past

Drew Harré was 17 when he left New Zealand in search of the perfect sandwich in the world-renowned culinary city of Paris. He was inspired by a friend who said to him one day “All I ever hear from you is that you can’t find a decent sandwich here, in Paris. So what are you going to do about it?” And so, Drew’s quest for the perfect sandwich began.

The foundation of any sandwich is amazing bread. He had been told that behind the Piazza Nervona in Rome there was an old bakery where two brothers, Giuseppi and Silvano, were baking their family’s centuries-old, secret recipe flûtbread. Drew became their apprentice, and before long became a veritable bread-baking virtuoso. It was time to bring his flûtbread to the French.

All Drew needed now was a restaurant, a name and, well, some amazing sandwich ideas. As for naming his bistro, Drew wanted a two-syllable word that reminded him of opera. Then it came to him - Cosi Fan Tutte, his favorite Italian opera. He’d call it Cosi for short. On May 1, 1989, he crossed his fingers and opened the doors of the first Cosi on rue de Seine.

It became a much-loved spot, as it is to this day. So that’s the story of how one man’s passion ignited a restaurant company that serves millions of guests every year. We hope the spirit of Drew Harré’s vision and his passionate quest that brought Cosi to the U.S.A., will always be evident in everything we do.
