

Online Meeting Enhancement Information, Pricing & FAQs

Add the Cheesetique Experience to Your Next Virtual Meeting

Jazz up a typical Zoom meeting by allowing Cheesetique to curate and present a cheese, charcuterie, and/or wine collection for your group. We will arrange in-town delivery or even ship to remote attendees. Then, during your meeting, our owner, Jill Erber, will log in remotely to walk your group through the delicious selections. The presentation lasts no more than 10 minutes—a fun way to kick things off but not monopolize your precious meeting time.

Pricing

$65/person without wine; $85/person with wine, plus sales tax, speaker cost, per-kit gratuity, and delivery or shipping if desired. Each “kit” includes a mix of three cheeses or charcuterie, pairing accompaniment, bottle of wine (optional), box of crackers and an educational handout. One kit serves 2-4 tasters.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do we get our kits?

If you are local to the DC area, then you are welcome to pick up your kit from Cheesetique on the day of your event. We will deliver kits within a 13-mile radius of Cheesetique for a cost of $20 per kit delivered. Kits can be shipped via FedEx for an extra charge. This may range anywhere from $40 to $100 per kit, based on where the recipient is located and what the kit contains. Note: We do not deliver or ship kits containing wine to Maryland.

What additional costs are there beyond the cost of the kits?

There is an additional speaker cost of $100, which covers advance preparation and active presentation time. Your class will be taught personally by our owner and “Cheese Lady” Jill Erber. View Jill’s bio here. Also included is a $3.25-per-kit gratuity, which goes directly to the cheesemongers preparing your kits.

How many participants can I have in my session?

The minimum number of attendees (kits) is 10. There is no maximum number of attendees.

What is the deadline for sending the list of attendees?

Final headcount and attendee addresses for local delivery are due at least 72 hours before your event. Out-of-town addresses for shipping are due at least 7 days before your event. Any additions or changes after those deadlines may be accommodated for an extra fee.

How do I book?

Email events@cheesetique.com to confirm availability for your preferred date and time.

How does payment work?

Once availability is confirmed, a 50% deposit (based on approximate number of attendees) is due to secure the date. The remaining balance, including any delivery and shipping charges, is due 72 hours before your event.
