TASTE OF NEW YORK CITY

Industry Kitchen

Just off the water near Wall Street, you'll find Industry Kitchen. In addition to the interior dining space, diners can enjoy the outdoor terrace space (conveniently covered and enclosed for the winter months so guests can enjoy the stunning view without sacrificing any comfort). The menu is also warm and comfortable with seasonal flavors like the butternut squash and apple soup, and ricotta gnocchi. The selection of pizzas includes imaginative and classic flavors. Don't forget the fun interactive flavors that are perfect for winter, like the cheese fondue and "S'mores For Two."

Jungsik

Located in Tribeca, Jungsik serves up elevated Korean cuisine in a modern setting. The tasting menus are ideal for a celebration or an upscale night out with a quality dining experience. The signature menu includes a variety of premium seafood items along with lamb and tuna kimbap. Wine pairings are also available to elevate your dining experience. Are you looking to expand your palate even more? Additional seasonal items can also be added to your tasting, such as the black cod or the bossam.

Ai Fiori

Ai Fiori inside The Langham New York offers upscale Italian cuisine in a sophisticated setting. Enjoy one of three tasting menus (including a special vegetarian selection) with optional wine pairings, or select a la carte from the dinner menu. If you're in the mood for something truly decadent, opt for the Platinum Osetra Caviar or the Golden Kaluga Caviar. If you're looking for just a taste of the menu, swing by for Happy Hour from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. on weeknights, and enjoy a selection of starters and appetizer-sized pastas.
