

The 10 Most Festive Holiday Bars in NYC

There's nothing quite like Christmas in New York City. From the real-life magic on 73rd street to a 21-year-old in a soiled Santa outfit splayed out on your doorstep, the signs of the season are popping up all over town.

So why not indulge in a holiday spirit (or four) at one of the 10 highly festive bars we've compiled below, all of which have decked the halls to the nth degree this year. From rooftop igloos to knock-you-on-your-ass nog, here's your guide to maximum merriment.

Winter Chalet at Industry Kitchen

South Street Seaport

A whimsical scene of classic holiday magic, Industry Kitchen is dripping in sparkling lights, snow-laced trees and reindeer clacking on the roof. Sip a Frozen Peppermint Slide or Spiked Hot Chocolate and nibble on Gingernut Pizza with eggnog frosting.
