

DOWNTOWN

CULTURE

WHERE TO WATCH THE 4TH OF JULY FIREWORKS DOWNTOWN

The Fourth of July is just around the corner and if you are not sneaking off to the Hamptons with the rest of Manhattan, you are watching the Macy's 4th of July Fireworks Show.

Making its debut in 1976, Macy's Fourth of July Fireworks Spectacular is a beloved annual tradition and the most celebrated July 4th fireworks display in the country. Downtown Magazine has selected a few spots where you can get great views of the show and have a great time as well.

4th Of July at Industry Kitchen

Where: 70 South St.

What: This 5,000 square-foot venue accommodates up to 300 guests with indoor and outdoor seating. Floor-to-ceiling windows seamlessly separate the indoor and outdoor areas, framing the Macy's fireworks display that can be enjoyed from any seat. Guests of this event have the ability to dine at individual and communal dining tables, the large freestanding bar or the outdoor terrace and lounge.

