Feel like you're outside, without actually feeling like it. You'll be toasty warm at the Winter Village at Industry Kitchen, at the East River in the Seaport District. Industry Kitchen has transformed its 5,000 square-foot venue into a "Winter Village" complete with heated outdoor glasshouses with twinkly lights (seats 2 to 10 people).

Delight yourself with warm cocktails, pumpkin espresso martinis and themed food and beverage offerings, curated by chef Jonathan Haffmans. Combine those tasty treats with unobstructed views of the Brooklyn and Williamsburg Bridges and the Brooklyn Skyline and you are in for a great New Year's Eve night.

You can also stop by on New Year's Day for a delicious brunch. The waterfront restaurant will be serving chef brunch specials including lemon ricotta pancakes with blueberry-thyme compote and Vermont maple syrup; a Lobster Omelet with heirloom tomato, chives, mascarpone and lemon vinaigrette; or a strawberry shortcake waffle.
