USA TODAY NETWORK

If you feel more comfortable feasting at home but don't relish thought of cooking yet another meal there, these metro Phoenix restaurants have got you covered. Whether you need just the sides or the whole shebang, check out these spots for a Thanksgiving meal that's available for takeout or, in some cases, delivery.

Sierra Bonita Catering

Pick up a take-and-reheat meal for two ($64) or four ($128). The menu features maple-chile brined off the bone turkey with pan gravy, Boursin mashed potatoes, garlic and herb stuffing, wild mushroom green bean casserole with crispy tobacco onions, citrus-cranberry relish, and roasted Brussels sprouts with cranberries and toasted almonds. Add a whole pumpkin pie with cinnamon whipped cream or a bourbon apple pie with crumb topping and cinnamon whipped cream for $28 each. Orders must be placed by noon on Nov. 20. Pickup window is 10 a.m.-3 p.m. on Nov. 25. Delivery is available for $5 within a limited delivery zone.

Details: 8522 N. Seventh Street, Phoenix. 602-573-2367, sb-catering.com.

Beckett's Table and Southern Rail

Need just the sides? Each of these signature la cart dishes serves six: bacon cheddar biscuit stuffing ($29), Yukon gold mashed potatoes ($28), wood oven roasted Brussels sprouts with lemon honey vinaigrette ($32), caramelized onion turkey gravy ($18), organic cranberry sauce ($18), whole fig and pecan pie ($31), and a pint of citrus zest cream cheese ice cream ($10). A pre-selected six-pack of wine is also available for $99. Orders must be placed by Nov. 20. Pickup window is noon-6 p.m. on Nov. 25. Orders must be picked up at

Why go through the hours of stirring, chopping and baking when you can jump ahead right to the main attraction? From simple classic meals to indulgent buffets, find your ideal Thanksgiving Day feast at one of these 15 metro Phoenix restaurants. All menus are available on Nov. 26 only. Reservations are highly recommended unless noted.

Although many metro Phoenix restaurants are open for dine-in service, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention advise that limiting food service to drive-thru, delivery, take-out or curbside pickup present the lowest risk of spreading COVID-19.

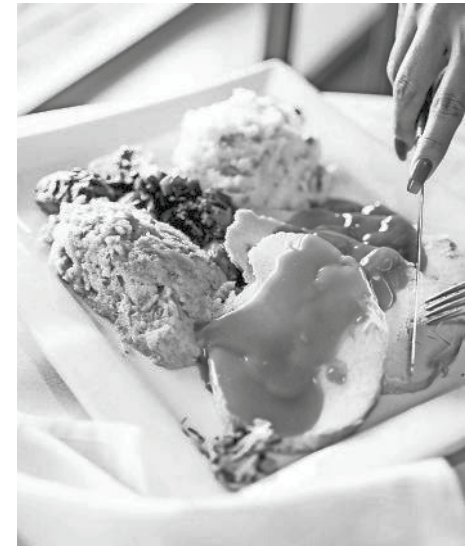

Wrigley Mansion

A four-course prix-fixe menu ($125, $50 additional for wine pairings) will be served noon-7 p.m. and features dishes like spiced pumpkin soup, seared scallop with uni foam and mushroom ravioli. Main course options include rack of lamb; parsnip pasta; organic garlic and herb roasted turkey breast with whipped potatoes, haricots vert and caramelized onion gravy; and roasted sirloin served with sweet potato gratin and au poivre sauce. A dark chocolate mousse torte and roasted pumpkin tart are among the dessert options. A children's menu for ages 12 and younger ($45) will be available. Reservations are required.

Details: 2501 E. Telawa Trail, Phoenix. 602-955-4079, wrigleymansion.com.

Tomaso's

A five-course prix-fixe ($52) menu will be served from noon-9 p.m. It features selections like butternut squash bisque, handcrafted truffle and egg ravioli, roasted turkey dinner served with sausage and fennel stuffing, olive oil mashed potatoes with pancetta and
