DOYA, MEZE BAR BY FORMER MANDOLIN TEAM COMING TO WYNWOOD

FOOD AND DRINK

03/06/2020

‘Modern Aegean Meze Bar,’ Doya, will be coming to Wynwood this spring. Helmed by Chef Erhan Kostepen – former co-founder and executive chef of Miami’s Mandolin – Doya will serve as a destination for friends, family, colleagues, and lovers to connect over the authentic food, lifestyle and experiences from the Aegean region (Greece and Turkey).

Chef Erhan, along with his partner, Jerry Bock, previously general manager at Soho Beach House’s Cecconi’s and the Prime 112 Group have joined to present vibrant Aegean cuisine, made to pair with handcrafted cocktails, featuring signature mixes made with gin, as well as twists on popular libation classics; a robust wine list selection with Aegean imports; and lively music.

Menu items will range from meze (hot and cold Turkish starters) served to share, and main dishes, comprised of honest food, made with quality ingredients such as succulent meats, aromatic produce and fragrant herbs. Prepared in an open kitchen, that mirrors the interactive dining experience found in the Aegean region, guests can converse and connect with the chefs while they cook over wood-fired ovens and charcoal grills.

More information on opening dates, interior photos and expanded menu coming soon!
