FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Marquette, Michigan -. Pizza lovers, get ready for a new player in town! Joe Constance, the devopler of the new Third Street Marketplace, is excited to announce the signing of the new front lease tenant- Pizza@.

Pizza@ is known for its delicious and fresh ingredients, as well as its commitment to providing an excellent customer experience. The new location will feature the same high-quality ingredients and customer service that Pizza@ is known for, as well as some new surprises that will be unique to this location.

"We are so happy to be opening up Michigan's first Pizza@ here in Marquette in such a vibrant and welcoming community," said Mark Troudt, co-owner of Pizza@ Marquette with his wife Chris. "We know that the people of Marquette love good pizza, and we're confident that they'll love what we have to offer. We can't wait to welcome everyone to our new location."

The new Pizza@ location in Marquette will offer a wide variety of pizza options, including classic favorites and creative new flavors. Customers will be able to choose from a selection of toppings, crusts, and sauces to create their perfect pizza. In addition to pizza, and other Italian classics the restaurant will also offer a range of salads, wings and desserts. There will be something for everyone at Pizza@ Marquette. Vegan and gluten free options will also be available.

"We could not be more pleased to partner with Mark and Chris to bring Pizza@ to Marquette," said Troy Barton the founder and CEO of the Pizza@ chain. "We've put a lot of effort into creating a menu that will satisfy everyone's pizza cravings, from classic margherita to more adventurous toppings and classic offerings. Our pizzas are made with only the freshest and highest quality ingredients, and we take great care in crafting each pie to perfection."

Pizza@ Marquette will open its doors this spring, The Troudt's invite everyone to come and try the ultimate pizza experience in Marquette. The restaurant will offer dine-in, takeout, and delivery options, making it the perfect spot for a quick lunch, family dinner, or late-night snack.
