

SPARKLING

Bubbles are magical, an alchemy that transforms sugar and yeast into effervescence. Sparkling wines are as delightful as they are utilitarian. Beyond being wonderful celebratory beverages, these wines are often a great match for what is enjoyed at the table. No beverage category has more versatility than sparkling wines.

VIBRANT WHITES

These wines display a typically lighter profile with high-tone acidity that refresh and invigorate. These wines pair well with the first courses of the menu but one should feel confident in drinking them throughout.

TEXTURED WHITES

These wines present a depth of flavor along with a viscosity on the palate more like whole milk than skim milk. They are wonderful accompaniments to a shared family meal or feast., complimenting the lighter courses as much as the richer ones.

AROMATIC WHITES

Perfumed and floral, these wines are unmistakable in aroma and polarize partakers into those that love them or those that leave them. There is no in between. They work very well as an aperitif and thoughtful food pairings.

ROSE

Good Times! Rose is fun. These wines are by nature not as serious as red wines because they typically do not display the same depth of flavors, but that is not to say that they should not be taken seriously. They delight and are equally suited to the first sip of the meal as the last. Whether you look at them as the white wine for red wine drinkers—i.e. the first course wine or aperitif in a progression of bigger reds or the last wine in a progression of bright wines for a mid-summer’s meal.; enjoy them often and have fun!

ETHEREAL & SILKY REDS

Heft and weight are not prerequisites for depth. More charming is the wine that does not rely on a powerful structure to compel. These wines use beguiling aroma and long, persistent flavors to entice. They are light and delicate and are particularly nimble when it comes to matching food. They make for an ideal wine to carry you through a meal from start to finish.

LEAN & MUSCULAR REDS

Think Bruce Lee. Fully garbed, no one would consider him a physical force, but it is unlikely that any of us would like to cross him in an alley. On first look these wines appear light but possess power beneath the surface—lean muscular tannin, which is often matched with fresh or dried fruit and savory notes. They make ideal companions to items from the hearth.

ELEGANT & LAYERED REDS

These wines are the difference between a single instrument solo and an ensemble playing together. Mostly blends of grapes, these wines offer levels of flavors presented with an ample base of texture. The synthesis of the union of several grapes creates high notes balanced by low notes. Matched with food, these wines buttress complex composed dishes and add distinctive character to simple home-style fare.

POWERFUL & ROBUST REDS

Unabashed, bold and rich, these wines display ample fruit and texture. They are not demure. They are round in the mouth and present ripe flavors. Big as these might be (there are certainly bigger to be found in the world), these wines were selected for their balance. A football linebacker is larger than most, but also able to move on his feet. Drink these wines with grilled beef or just because you love them.
