SOMMELIER FEATURED FINDS

Heidi Schrock & Söhne, 2020, Weisburgunder, Pét-Nat, Burgenland, AT 75

Heidi's been making wine in the Burgenland's of Austria since the 80's. She's recently introduced her twin sons to the nuances of oenology. Pet-Nat and Natural wines are all the rage these days. Fun and fresh, noteworthy character, naturally effervescent wine is dry with supple, edginess and gorgeous nuance. Soft white stone fruit with pronounced minerality amid notes of golden apple and a light fizz. Refreshing and fun.

Kinmon Akita, X3 Amairo, Junmai Genshu, Akita Prefecture 720ML 129

Mouth filling flavors of sherry, rum raisin, toasted pecans, orange peel, maple syrup candied nuts. This sake is aged resulting in fuller body, richness, texture. Selling point- 3 times Koji Malt (traditional in sake production), Champagne style assemblage = sake with soul. A stunning sake that should not be missed as it appeals to all sake drinkers, and is a food pairing superstar.

Hermes Pavese, 2023, Prié Blanc, Morgex et de la Salle, Vallee D'Aosta, IT 113

In the lofty reaches of the Val d'Aoste, beneath the towering presence of Mont Blanc, lie Europe's highest vineyards. Here, the indigenous Prié grape thrives in the majesty of this alpine terroir. The wine reveals delicate floral aromas, subtle herbal notes, bright citrus, orchard fruits, and the purity of wet stone—all carried on a light, vibrantly crisp frame. Grown organically with minimal intervention, yielding an austere yet racy white of striking minerality, vivacity, and length. Only around 12,000 bottles are produced annually, A true alpine gem, and a perfect food savvy quencher.

Matthaisson, 2021, Cabernet Sauvignon, Estate, Napa, CA 213

Crafted from carefully tended organic vineyards, these wines are about purity and balance—bursting with flavor, and energy, yet never heavy. They show bright, focused fruit with a smooth, elegant feel that makes them easy to enjoy. The idea is to bring back a more classic style of Napa Cabernet: vibrant and juicy, with fresh red fruit, a touch of herbs, and just enough depth from darker notes. They're made to pair beautifully with food, kept at a moderate alcohol level, and are immediately compelling table side.

- | | |
|---|------------|
| Imayo Tsukasa Black Junmai Sake, Niigata, Japan 720ml | 101 |
| So crystalline it nearly vibrates out of the glass. Dry, crisp, sake with elements of white flowers, fresh-cut grass, umami, lean texture, and mineraly finish. Excellent with rich, fatty and savory dishes. | |
| Manotsuru Ginjo “Bulzai” Niigita, Sado Islands, Japan 300ml | 55 |
| Unpasturized until bottling which gives a zesty essence to this classic Ginjo. Shows aromas of tropical fruits, white pepper, fennel, easy drinking. Pairs well with fresh fish, light appetizers. | |
| Manotsuru Nigori Junmai Ginjo “Countless Visions”, Niigita, Japan 300ml | 55 |
| Unfiltered, leaving richer consistency, and a cloudy brew lending to creamy, full rich mouth feel. Tropical notes of kiwi and guava hit the palate with a refreshing burst of flavor; a mild herbal element comes through with juniper and sweet basil on the distinctive sweet finish. Shake before serving chilled. Compliments rich and bold dishes. | |
| Kinmon Akita, X3 Amairo, Junmai Genshu, Akita Prefecture 720ml | 156 |
| Mouth filling flavors of sherry, rum raisin, toasted pecans, orange peel, maple syrup candied nuts. This sake is aged resulting in fuller body, golden straw hew, richness, texture. Selling point- 3 times Koji Malt (traditional in sake production), Champagne style assemblage = sake with soul. A stunning sake that should not be missed as it appeals to all sake drinkers, and is a food pairing superstar. | |
