NYC Restaurant Week Winter 2019: Delicious Dishes for Less, January 21-February 8

Irvington

Aside from diners who love a good rotisserie meal, there is much to love about Irvington. When available, diners find a plethora of Union Square Greenmarket produce on the menu, which is where Irvington sources so much of its food in season. For this special restaurant week menu, starters include Murray's burrata, mushroom bisque, and little gem salad, while dinner choices include pan-roasted salmon, house tagliatelle, and braised short rib with parsnip, pearl onion, and blackberry. Dessert options include poached quince with pistachio and mascarpone gelato, Clementine cake with allspice whipped cream, or a sorbet trio. Make a reservation at Irvington.
