Coco Chanel allegedly said, "I only drink Champagne on two occasions: when I am single and when I am not." We couldn't agree more. Whether you're celebrating Valentine's Day with your beau, embracing singledom or deeming the holiday as "Galentine's Day" (celebrating the love of your squad), we've got you covered. Here are spots to eat, play and drink ridiculous amounts of Champagne on Valentine's Day in NYC.

Dinner for Two: NYC's Best V-Day Restaurants

Relish a four-course meal from Irvington in Union Square on Valentine's Day. Dishes like wild stripped bass and yellowtail tartare are on the $65 prix fixe menu, as well as a dessert platter for two. Even sweeter? There's a $55 Champagne pairing available, including Domaine Chandon, Veuve Clicquot, Dom Pérignon and Moët Rosé.
