6 Places To Dine For Father's Day 2018 In NYC

Father's Day is quickly approaching and if there is one thing we know dads love, it's to indulge during their favorite holiday. This year treat dad to brunch, dinner, or a combo of both at one of the below six New York City hotspots.

Irvington

Located at the W Union Square, Irvington is offering up a special tasting that will impress any and every dad. Serving their traditional brunch and dinner menus, Irvington will also have a special Ribeye and Scotch pairing. A delicious Grilled Creekstone Ribeye and Macallan tasting will be available for $60 during brunch and dinner. Bring your dad in to experience a tableside pouring of Macallan 12yr, Macallan 15yr – Fine Oak, and Macallan Rare Cask, and receive a brief description of each from the server.
