COCKTAILS 18

For centuries, cocktails have held a cherished place in holiday celebrations across the globe. From the warm, spiced notes of mulled wine in Victorian England to the creamy indulgence of American eggnog, festive libations have long been a symbol of gathering, comfort, and cheer. In the early 20th century, classic holiday cocktails began to emerge in upscale lounges and private clubs, where mixologists crafted seasonal drinks with refined spirits, rich syrups, and aromatic spices. Today, we honor this timeless tradition with a curated selection of holiday-inspired cocktails—each one a tribute to the warmth, elegance, and convivial spirit of the season.

OUR BEVERAGE DIRECTOR'S FAVORITES - 18

Cynar Flip

Cynar, Tennessee Whiskey, Cointreau, Clove Simple, Whole Egg

Cynar's secret ingredient is artichoke — yes, really.

This bittersweet Italian amaro has quietly become a bartender favorite, popping up in low-ABV cocktails and spritz variations across trendy menus. Think of it as Aperol's moodier, earthier cousin: less sweet, more herbal, and perfect for anyone craving a sophisticated, bitter-forward sip.

The Rebutito was born at Andalusia's ferias in the 1990s, when sherry drinkers started cutting fino with lemon-lime soda to keep sipping through long, hot festival days. It caught on fast at Jerez's Feria del Caballo, becoming the unofficial drink of Spain's horse fairs, flamenco nights, and bullfighting season.

Rebutito

Oloroso Sherry, Lemon, Lime, Rosemary-Pear Syrup, Soda Water

1789 SINGLE BARREL PROGRAM

American whiskey dates back to the 1600s, and for most of that time, distillers blended barrels for a smooth, consistent pour. Over the past century, though, they've learned that every barrel has its own personality, shaped by the grain recipe, the yeast, and even where it rests in the warehouse.

In 1984, Buffalo Trace released Blanton's, the first commercially sold single barrel bourbon. Today, single barrel bottlings are some of the most sought-after spirits around.

Each year, our team hand-picks a few standout barrels to share across our restaurants. We hope you enjoy them as much as we do. Cheers!
