The Wines (and How to Drink Them)

What We Look For:

Terroir over Trophy

If it tastes like where it's from, we're in. Whether it's a grand cru Burgundy or a smoky white from a volcano in Hungary, we love wines that hum with character.

Curiosity over Convention

You'll find legends here—Paolo Bea, PYCM, Emidio Pepe—but also brilliant things from Spain, France, and California's forgotten corners. The classics are well represented; the weirdos are welcome too.

Natural, but Clean

Many wines on our list are farmed organically or biodynamically and made with little intervention. That doesn't mean funky for funk's sake—just honest, vibrant juice that feels alive in the glass.

The Vibe

Need a bubbly for your clams? We've got grower Champagne, volcanic pét-nats, and a Lambrusco that's basically made for polenta.

Looking for Chardonnay? Burgundy is deep here—think Meursault, Chassagne, and Chablis—but you'll also find brilliant Chards from Macon, California, and Jura.

Want to go red and wild? Light & crunchy? Deep & structured? A little smoky or herbal? You're covered.

Feeling adventurous? Let us steer you toward something off the map: think Juhfark from Somló, Blaufränkisch from Hungary, or Schioppettino from 1982. (Really.)

Glass, Bottle, or Both?

We'll happily pour any bottle by the glass if you're up for two glasses—we'll Coravin it just for you.

It's the perfect way to explore something special without committing to the full bottle.

(Yes, even that Corton-Charlemagne. Yes, even that Envínate.)

Not sure where to start? Just ask your server—we love talking wine.
