

Honoring American Winemaking Icons

As the United States celebrates its Semiquincentennial (250th Anniversary), The Cook and The Cork is honoring the American Icons who transformed a colonial experiment into a global powerhouse. The celebrations bridge the gap between the Founding Father's early vineyards and the modern legends who put American wine on the world map.

THIS MONTH WE HIGHLIGHT:

TURLEY

Larry Turley was born in Tennessee and raised on tobacco and dairy farms in Georgia, where his respect for the land took root early. As an adult, he carried that instinct for preservation into medicine, working for years as an emergency room physician.

After moving to California in the 1970s, a chance encounter over a shared bottle of wine led to the founding of Frog's Leap Winery in 1981—Larry farming by day and working in the ER by night. Drawn to old vine Zinfandel and Petite Syrah, he later founded Turley Wine Cellars in 1993.

Today, through organic farming and a focus on historic old vine vineyards, Turley continues Larry's mission: to preserve both the land and California's unique winemaking heritage.

It's with great honor we showcase our extensive Turley Allocation,
 a rare treat for wine lovers!
