You've arrived.
Welcome to The Club.

CHRIST THE REDEEMER

25.00

BRAZIL /

RAISING HANDS

INGREDIENTS /

ron zacapa 23
cocchi de torino
campari
rainforest honey
beeswax

HISTORY /

Commissioned in 1922, designed by Brazilian Heitor da Silva Costa, and sculpted by Frenchman Paul Landowski, the mammoth statue sits atop Brazil's 2,300-foot Corcovado Mountain. The 700-ton statue was entirely made in Brazil apart from the hands and head, which were created in Paris and transported to Rio de Janeiro. The sculpture is lit every night with about 300 energy-efficient LED lights, making it visible from great distances.

CHICHEN ITZA

24.00

MEXICO /

EL CASTILLO

INGREDIENTS /

don julio blanco
spicy pineapple
lime
agave
grapefruit soda

HISTORY /

Chichén Itzá is a Mayan city on the Yucatán Peninsula in Mexico, which flourished under the Mayan tribe Itzá. El Castillo ("The Castle"), is one of the most astonishing ruins inside the archaeological site rising 79 feet above the Main Plaza. A testament to the Mayans' astronomical abilities, the structure features a total of 365 steps, the number of days in the solar year.

MACHU PICCHU

27.00

PERU /

TEMPLE OF SUN

INGREDIENTS /

belvedere pure
nixta corn liqueur
sauterne
sunflower petal
moët & chandon impérial brut

HISTORY /

The Temple of the Sun is one of the most sacred temples in all of Machu Picchu. Adapted to the natural environment, the unique semi-circular construction of the temple is built over an enormous granite rock featuring a tower with a trapezoidal window. In this sacred temple, it's believed that Incas worshipped their Sun God, Inti, and it may have served as a royal tomb.

THE COLOSSEUM

32.00

ITALY /

VESPASIAN

INGREDIENTS /

hennessy x.o
barolo chinato cocchi
hot chocolate pu-erh
coffee

HISTORY /

Vespasian was a Roman emperor whose reign of political stability funded a vast Roman building program which included the Colosseum. Completed in A.D. 80, the Amphitheater - and Rome's fearsome arena - was conceived as a testament to Rome's might and was the most complex man-made structure in the world.

THE GREAT WALL OF CHINA

23.00

CHINA /

THE MYRIAD

INGREDIENTS /

ketel one pandan
italicus
coconut
chinese five spice

HISTORY /

The term "myriad" is technically the number 10,000 (ten thousand) and is almost exclusively used in English for literal translations. In that sense, it's also fitting that in China, many people colloquially refer to The Great Wall as the "Ten-Thousand-Mile-Long Wall."

PETRA

28.00

JORDAN /

ROSE CITY

INGREDIENTS /

served warm

bulleit bourbon
black tea
rose water
date
sage mint

HISTORY /

The city of Petra, Jordan, was once a trade hub for the ancient world. Nestled among sandstone mountains and cliffs, Petra is also called the "Rose City" because of the color of the stone from which it is carved. As traders from around the world passed though, they brought new ideas and culture from places like Egypt, China, and Greece. Petra became more than a center of trade–it was also a cultural center of the ancient world.

TAJ MAHAL

26.00

INDIA /

THE GRAND GESTURE

tanqueray 10
dry vermouth
saffron
turmeric
chamomile flower

HISTORY /

Built by Emperor Shah Jahān, the Taj Mahal was intended to honor his wife Mumtāz Maḥal, who passed in 1631. Its recognized architectonic beauty has a rhythmic combination of solids and voids. Made entirely of white marble, the mausoleum documents Shah Jahān's grief and illustrates their love story.
