

NO SLEEP CLUB NYC

things to do this week in nyc — monday, october 26 to sunday, november 1

wednesday, october 28

a celebration of life: día de los muertos at casa felix

- “casa felix will honor día de los muertos with a celebration of life, a five-day celebration centered around the mexican tradition of remembering and celebrating loved ones who have passed. a marigold installation will transform the restaurant throughout october, with a traditional ofrenda unveiled on october 28. guests will be invited to contribute to the ofrenda by writing the names of loved ones on memorial cards, allowing the altar to fill with dedications throughout the celebration. throughout october, guests can also enjoy seasonal food and beverage specials, including a dessert tamale and the maria bonita cocktail presented on dry ice.”
- october 28–november 2
- casa felix, 190 seventh ave., chelsea

thursday, october 29

a celebration of life: día de los muertos at casa felix

- october 28–november 2
- casa felix, 190 seventh ave., chelsea

friday, october 30

a celebration of life: día de los muertos at casa felix

- october 28–november 2
- casa felix, 190 seventh ave., chelsea

saturday, october 31

family fiesta

- “casa felix will host a ticketed, family-friendly día de los muertos celebration featuring a festive food spread, bottomless mimosas for adults, and face painting, balloons, and a photo booth for children.”
- 11 a.m.–3 p.m.
- casa felix, 190 seventh ave., chelsea
- $40 adults, $20 children