1oz SPIRITS SERVED IN A
HANDMADE CRYSTAL GLASS

DALMORE CONSTELLATION 1992,
CASK NO. 18 325

Maturation Journey:

Under the watchful eye of Master Distiller Richard Paterson, this spirit was initially matured in American white oak first fill Kentucky Bourbon barrels, to give it a flawless base of vanilla, ginger spice and mangos.

After 10 long years in cask, the spirit was then transferred to the finest Tawny Port pipes from Porto, Portugal where it would rest for a further nine years. During this time the spirit is nurtured by the cask, gifting enticing notes of chunky marmalade, bitter chocolate and rich plums. This whisky is an unforgettable masterpiece.

Tasting notes:

Colour – Deep mahogany gold with shimmering highlights of ruby amber.

Nose – Ripe plums, citrus fruits and marzipan with whispers of ginger spice, mangos and fleshy grape pulp.

Taste – Sweet pear, thick chunky marmalade, bitter chocolate and crushed almonds.

DALMORE CONSTELLATION 1976,
CASK NO. 3 1499

Maturation Journey:

The long years in American white oak have certainly not diminished this outstanding single malt.

For 35 years the spirit slumbered in the cask, gifting it with a beautiful inner world of bramley apple, peaches, kiwi fruits and macaroons.

Tasting Notes:

Colour – Amber, dazzling gold with glints of copper.

Nose – Creamy caramel, vanilla fudge and marzipan are interlaced with pineapple, tangerines, lemon cheesecake and sandalwood. These aromas are finally fused with rich praline, Peach Melba and ginger.

Taste – Bramley apples with peaches and cream, chewy toffee, kiwi fruits and macaroons open, before a final fanfare of Turkish delight, honeyed pears, freshly baked rye bread and marzipan.

DALMORE 40 YEAR OLD 1199

The Story:

This 2022 edition was initially matured in American white oak ex-bourbon casks, before being transferred into 30 year old Matusalem oloroso sherry casks. This precious liquid was then blended with spirit which was matured in American white oak ex-bourbon casks and then Graham's Port Colheita casks from 1970, creating a whisky which is indulgent, smooth and complex.

Tasting Notes:

Aroma – Cherries, plums, sultanas, toffee apple and vanilla pod.

Palate – Orange peel, chocolate truffles, Old English marmalade and crushed walnuts.

Finish – Black Forest fruits, poached pear laced with caramel and dark chocolate.

DALMORE QUINTESSENCE 299

The Story:

The Dalmore Quintessence is the first and only single malt whisky in the world with a five red wine cask finish. Master Distiller Richard Paterson travelled to California to hand select the five different casks in which this exceptional whisky would be matured; Zinfandel, Pinot Noir, Syrah, Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon, each bringing their individual nuances to create a totally unique single malt.

Tasting Notes:

Aroma – Black Forest fruits, marmalade and honeycomb.

Palate – Tropical fruits, ginger and sun dried raisins.

Finish – Cassis, orange and fresh baked banana.

DALMORE 25 YEAR OLD 249

The Story:

Under the watchful eye of our Master Distiller, the spirit is initially matured in American white oak ex-bourbon casks. This gives its first base of soft vanilla and honey notes. The whisky is then carefully apportioned between casks which have held 30 year old Matusalem oloroso sherry and Tawny Port pipes. It is then brought back together to harmonise in a first-fill ex-bourbon cask, creating something truly exceptional.

Tasting Notes:

Aroma – Exotic fruits, citrus, vanilla pods, treacle toffee and fig cake.

Palate - Madagascan vanilla pods, thick treacle toffee and chocolate truffles.

Finish - Notes Maple syrup, dark chocolate and spiced gingerbread.

RÉMY MARTIN LOUIS XIII COGNAC: THE JEROBOAM 425

The Story:

LOUIS XIII Jeroboam contains a blend of the finest and most precious eaux-de-vie, aged over time and re-created every year by our Cellar Master to get the same emotion and same aromatic profile since 1874. All our eaux-de-vie originate from grapes grown in Grande Champagne, the premier cru of the Cognac region. The individual eaux-de-vie have been carefully selected over time by generations of Cellar Masters and slowly matured and blended in ancient French oak casks. Every LOUIS XIII Jeroboam contains the lifetime achievements of generations of Cellar Masters, each thinking a century ahead to create the distinctive taste and aromas of LOUIS XII.

Tasting Notes:

The cognac is served in Christophe Pillet-designed glasses – a traditional Louis XIII pipette known as a Spear. The design is such that the deep reddish-copper liquid poured into the glass appears like a sunflower in full bloom when viewed from above. Soon, an aromatic bouquet of flowers, sweet fruits, and subtle spices are accompanied by the endless complexity of ethereal notes. Louis XIII features a melting pot of aromas evoking passion fruit, honey, myrrh, honeysuckle, dried roses, cigar box, plum, leather and figs.

GRAHAM'S THE MASTER SINGLE HARVEST TAWNY RARE PORT 1950 199

The Story:

Paying tribute to three generations of cellar masters, coopers and tasters that have accompanied its ageing for over seven decades, Graham's 1950 Single Harvest Tawny Port will be released as the rarest wine in The Cellar Master's Trilogy collection. Bottled under 'The Master' label.

As Europe began slowly rebuilding its ravaged economy from World War II, only limited quantities of the best parcels of wine of the 1950 harvest were set aside for long-term ageing. Over time, these casks were used for blending with other wines and very little has reached us. Charles Symington has now decided to release just half of the last cask. This remarkable wine is a celebration of the deep complexity and balance that only experience can craft.

Tasting Notes:

The deep auburn center reflects the wine's amazing concentration, while the pale ochre rim signals its venerable age. A flourish of aromas reveals walnuts, soft caramel and honey notes, demerara, citrus preserves and Cigar box scents. The voluptuous palate — simultaneously intense and delicate — unravels layers of refined, rich citrus fruit and soft caramel, with a beam of freshness providing exquisite balance. Pleasant traces of tobacco leaf and mocha make for a lingering finale.
