TITO'S HISTORY

It is believed that Tito was born in the small beach village of Todos Santos, on Mexico's Baja California Peninsula, or maybe it was just outside of Haleiwa, on the north shore of Oahu. Then again, it might have been the town of Balboa, on the Pacific coast of Panama.

The fact is that no one's quite sure where he's from. Whenever he's asked, Tito simply leans back, scratches his chin, and replies (in his own language, which we call "Tito-Speak"), "I come from da beach, brah. No matter where I am, I'm always at da beach."

Spoken like a true hedonist. It's that love for the pleasure-seeking beach lifestyle and good times that's at the heart and soul of Tito's Burritos & Wings.

At Tito's Burritos & Wings, our slogan is "It's all good!" and it applies to the entire philosophy on which we built our business. In other words, we are 100 percent committed to giving our customers nothing but goodness: the tastiest food, prepared and served in a casual and easygoing manner, always at a good value.

We use only the freshest ingredients in everything we prepare, and every order is custom-made the way YOU want it. It might take a few minutes longer, but we'll make sure it's worth the wait.

If you're eating here, kick back and enjoy the music or watch our "Wish I was there" TitoVision TV, always tuned to "da beach."

It's our mission for you to enjoy everything that Tito's Burritos & Wings has to offer, and that you leave with an "It's all good!" feeling.
