W Atlanta - Buckhead's party-hard priorities are obvious from the street. Its trendy restaurant, Cook Hall, juts out from the main building, crowned by a rooftop swimming pool. Just beyond, a glass elevator shoots up to Whiskey Blue, a Gerber Group club and lounge on the 12th floor. And that's just the street view. Once you pull into the drive, televisions facing the valet play music videos; in the lobby, celebrity designer Thom Filicia's décor includes metallic wallpaper, velvet couches, and groovy lamps. It may sound like a bit much, but when it's 1 a.m., you're at Whiskey Blue, and your room is just a few floors down, you'll thank yourself for booking here.
