A$AP YAMS
IN HONOR OF A$AP
(STEVEN RODRIGUEZ) YAMS

Steven Rodriguez “A$AP Yams” was born here in the village of Harlem. His favorite food was candied yams; he loved them for their stickiness, as everything he made had to stick to your soul, your mind, and your heart. We at Melba’s salute and pay tribute to Harlem’s own A$AP Yams!

MELBA!

Melba's Restaurant is regarded as the premier comfort food destination. The eponymous restaurant was the vision of founder Melba Wilson, who chose to build her restaurant in Harlem, creating employment opportunities and a warm dining experience for the community where she was born, bred, and buttered. Utilizing her hands-on business experience, she built the restaurant on genuine relationships, top-notch service, and great food. Dining at Melba's feels like coming home, with the doors always open for family.

& GRITS

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY
(10:00AM - 3:00PM)

Chef Melba's memories of cooking grits with her grandmother Amelia during summers in Hemingway, South Carolina nurtured her love of comforting soulful food and the stories passed down through every dish. Those cherished experiences still inspire her cooking today, honoring a legacy of love, tradition, and Southern hospitality in every meal she creates.
