

The 13 Best Christmas Bars In New York City

Whether you're staying smack-dab in the middle of Times Square or planning a more low-key trip in Brooklyn, we've rounded up some of our favorite Christmas bars and pop-ups in New York City. This list features exciting new experiences along with time-honored holiday haunts that even a Scrooge will love. So if you're planning on visiting the city this holiday season, grab your friends (and your Santa hat) and check out these Christmas destinations.

WATERMARK

3

Santa's Winter Wonderland At Watermark (Seaport)

Located right on Pier 15 at the bottom of Manhattan is Watermark, an outdoor bar and restaurant that spans a whopping 10,000 feet. But before you worry about sitting out in the cold, Watermark is transforming the space into Santa's Winter Wonderland. This pop-up features heated glass houses right on the East River, plenty of festive snacks and drinks, and the chance to snap a photo with Santa himself.

PLAN A TRIP

78 South St Pier 15, New York, NY
10038