

Where to see holiday lights in NYC this year

One of the best ways to celebrate the holiday season in New York City is to bear witness to the extravagant twinkling light installations and displays that illuminate the five boroughs. Ahead, discover the city's most iconic holiday light displays, from more than two million twinkling lights scattered throughout Hudson Yards to festively illuminated trails at the New York Botanical Garden.

Image courtesy of Watermark

Santa's Winter Wonderland at Watermark Bar

Through December 30

Hosted at Watermark on Pier 15, Santa's Winter Wonderland offers visitors a relaxing, festive dining experience right by the water's edge. Visitors can sit for a meal in Watermark's festive-themed heated glasshouses filled with sparkling holiday lights, take a photo with Santa, and take in breathtaking views of the city skyline. Tickets can be purchased here.