

OktoberFest brings German beer and food to NYC next month

LOWER MANHATTAN (PIX11) — Grab your lederhosen and dirndl and get ready to enjoy the best beers Germany has to offer at the annual OktoberFest celebration in New York City this fall.

The free festival will bring the tastes of authentic German beer and giant pretzels to the Watermark on Pier 15 from Sep. 12 through Oct. 26.

Each day of the festival will feature an all-day special, such as happy hour, discounts on beers, bratwurst samplers and feasts of German cuisine.

In between food and drinks, visitors can also enjoy tabletop games like ping-pong and Jenga amid views of the Brooklyn and Williamsburg bridges and the Brooklyn skyline from the waterfront.

While entry into the festival is free, food and drinks will be available for purchase. Those looking to attend are encouraged to RSVP online to ensure a spot in the venue.