

Winter Must-Haves and Activities That Are Perfect for the Cozy Season

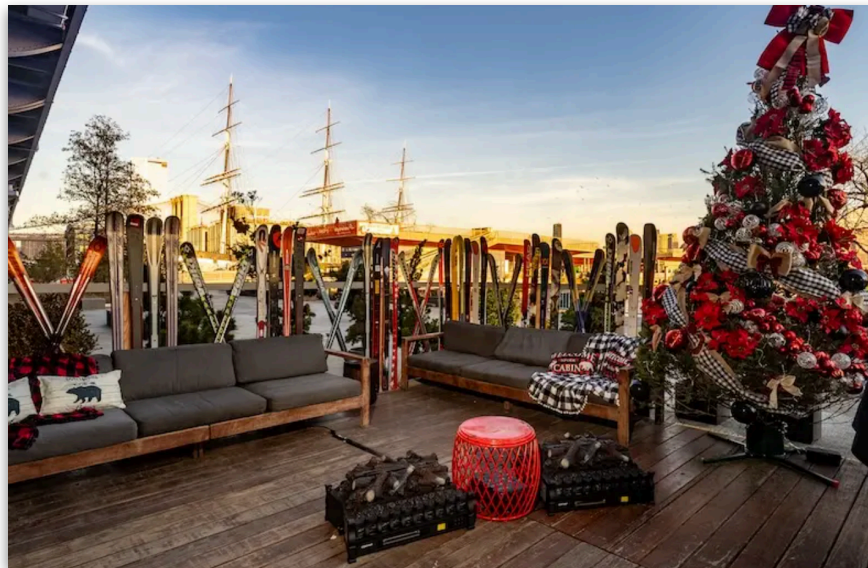

From sipping hot chocolate to snuggling on the couch, OK! has got you covered when it comes to what to order or what activities should be on your list this winter.

Scroll through below to find the best products for these colder months!

Pink Pier at Watermark (Seaport, NYC):

Watermark, the 10,000-square-foot outdoor bar and restaurant on Pier 15, has been transformed into the Pink Pier - NYC's pinkest over-the-top romantic dining destination. Dripping in pink twinkly lights, the Pink Pier offers the ultimate Instagrammable experience with panoramic views of the Brooklyn skyline. Presented in partnership with Bucket Listers, the waterside dining spot allows guests to enjoy pink outdoor heated glasshouses, multiple photo opportunities, and themed dinner and brunch food and beverage offerings. Tickets HERE.

Industry Kitchen | Seaport, NYC:

Industry Kitchen, the riverside eatery with unmatched views of the Brooklyn skyline, transforms the Seaport District into a glamorous Alpine escape this winter. The all-new Alpine Luxe: The Ski Chalet Experience, in partnership with Bucket Listers and accompanied by Veuve Clicquot, is inspired by Alpine indulgence. Guests will enjoy themed food & cocktails, a cozy Après Fireside Lounge, and festive decor overlooking the East River and Brooklyn Bridge. Capture a photo in the Ski Lift Lounge photobooth or in front of the snow-dusted chalet backdrop, set against the glow of the towering Christmas tree - perfect for holiday content!

- Enjoy a 90-minute private Chalet Igloo reservation for 2-10 guests, starting at $40/pp for lunch and brunch or $50/pp for dinner, which includes a three-course Alpine Luxe dining experience featuring a welcome lobster bisque shooter served in a shot ski, your choice of entrée, and tableside-torched s'mores. Running from November 21st through the winter season. Book here.