

Here are a few places where you can celebrate Halloween this weekend in NYC

Watermark, Pier 15, 78 South Street

Oct. 29, 7 p.m. to 12 a.m.

Watermark is transforming its pier into a silent disco for the night! Guests can pick from three live DJs to tune into while enjoying glow-in-the-dark cocktails, spooky surprises, scary movie screenings, and a full bar and food menu. Costumes are highly encouraged. Tickets start at $30 and are available on eventbrite.com.
