OFF THE TOP

It's finally the most wonderful time of the year, and Oktoberfest is upon us. NYC will be serving up plenty of great opportunities to don our dirndl and lederhosen and enjoy a pint. These are the best Oktoberfest celebrations in NYC.

Watermark Bar

As if the festival fun could not get any better, Watermark Bar is bringing an extended Oktoberfest celebration this year, from September 12 through October 26 at Pier 15 in New York City. Running seven days a week with 1-liter steins available for $15, admission is free, but be sure to RSVP here. As for das Essen, expect none other than traditional Hofbrau in addition to Weihenstephan and Radeberger beer, brats, giant pretzels and more. As they say in Germany, prost! 78 South St.
