STOKING THE LOCAL COMMUNITY

If you hang around the beach long enough, you'll hear people talk about getting stoked—that fired-up, can't-wait-to-share-it feeling surfers get after riding a great wave. At Long Doggers, that's what we are all about: Stoking the LOCAL Community.

Born in Brevard and fueled by the people who call it home, Long Doggers believes every meal, every smile, and every local event is a chance to stoke connections in our community. From sponsoring beach cleanups and surf contests to celebrating our amazing team at Beach Bash, everything we do is meant to add fuel to what makes our community special.

After all, it's not just about catching waves—it's about catching moments together, sharing the spark, and making sure everyone leaves a little more fired up than when they arrived.
