

M R .
P U R
P L E

May 2nd, 2019

Forbes

5 Rooftops in New York You Can't Miss

The season of rooftop aperitifs has begun. If you're in New York these days, do not miss an early evening on Manhattan's most coveted rooftops!

In addition to the cocktails offered by the most advanced mixologists, you will enjoy points of view that are second to none!

Discover the 5 essential rooftops in New York, city of all superlatives!

The Trendiest: Mr. Purple

Famously known as the "place to be", the lounge bar of Hotel Indigo LES offers a breathtaking view of all Manhattan.

With an extra-large terrace and a swimming pool, Mr. Purple welcomes a few happy locals and tourists with an irrepressible desire to Instagram.

Nestled on Ludlow Street, in the middle of the Lower East Side, the establishment is a great example of the neighborhood's success.

This is a place that we can't recommend enough. The hotel that houses the bar is wonderful as well, with XXL windows that invite guests to dive into the Big Apple as soon as they wake up. An A+ for this place that vibrates every night of the week.

180 Orchard St 15th floor, New York, NY 10002,
États-Unis
<https://www.hotelindigolowereastside.com>

