Where to Spend Easter in Manhattan- The Definitive List!

We have finally entered Spring here in Manhattan, which means warmer weather is on our way and Easter will be here shortly! Easter is only a couple of weeks away, on Sunday, April 16th, and many Manhattanites are on the lookout for the best places to go, dine, drink and have a blast! So where are the best places to go for this occasion?

We found five amazing places you should consider when the big Easter holiday arrives. Relax, unwind, and enjoy with your friends and family!

Irvington: This Easter Sunday, Irvington, located in the W Hotel Union Square, will be offering a series of brunch specials:

Rotisserie Leg of Lamb with spring onions, mint chimichurri, and marble potatoes ($32 for 1 person / $55 for 2 persons)

Angele'd Eggs with pink pickled eggs, chives and harrisa aioli (Complimentary for each table)

A speciality mimosa menu will also be offered and can be combined with an array of cold press juices from Liquiteria.
